3.0 Program Administration

The Commission meets every other month of the calendar year, usually in State College, Pennsylvania. Commissioners receive announcements and updates from the Chairman and Executive Director on topics and issues of interest to the Commission and conduct the general business functions of the Commission.

The Executive Director and Chairmen of the various committees report on their activities and, as necessary, comment and make recommendations on business items before the Commission.

- 3.1 Commission Meetings: July 22, 2010, September 22, 2010, November 18, 2010, February 9, 2011, March 24, 2011, May 19, 2011.

4.0 Training Program Administration

The Commission oversees a variety of firearm-specific training courses. The courses are designed to improve probation officers’ proficiency with their firearms. After completion of the Basic Academy, officers are required to complete additional courses yearly. Courses are either Commission-run or are run in-house by individual county departments. A brief description and summary of the courses follows.

- 4.1 Basic Firearms Training Academy (FETC Course 1): Included in the program are topics on officer’s authority, jurisdiction and use of force, firearm safety, introduction to firearms, and shooting fundamentals. The major portion of the program is hands-on skills development on the firing range, providing a minimum of 31 hours of instruction. The overall course is a minimum of 49 hours of instruction.

6.0 Instructor Administration

The Commission certifies qualified instructors as Commission Certified Firearms instructors (CFI's). The Commission manages all CFI's including verifying credentials, training, and training records. After becoming a Commission CFI an instructor may qualify to become a Master Instructor (MI). An MI is a class of CFI who has satisfied additional Commission instructor requirements. MI's are authorized to conduct and oversee in-house trainings. Additionally, all instructors may attend Commission-run Train the Trainer classes to become familiarized and credentialed for specific courses of instruction.
