

Essential Eligibility Requirements: Range

1. During training and qualification use an approved handgun safely by loading, holstering, drawing, firing, unloading, and maintaining the firearm.
2. Stand, kneel, or sit continuously for an extended period of time that may exceed one or more hours (e.g. firing weapon from standing or kneeling position, sitting during classroom training).
3. Walk up/downs stairs and steps to access the range.
4. Read, understand, and comply with range-related rules, regulations, and policy and procedures.
5. Under various environmental conditions, wear body armor for an extended period of time that may exceed one or more hours.
6. Under various environmental conditions, walk continuously for extended periods of time, including distances of 50 yards at one time (e.g. walk to end of range and back, walk to and from various ranges).
7. Without assistance kneel and stand up.
8. Receive verbal range instructions and understand and comply with them.
9. See and identify targets from 25 yards.
10. Withstand a variety of environmental conditions and stress levels (e.g. qualifying within a certain amount of time, firing weapon in hot or rainy conditions).
11. Bend and/or reach to pick up dropped articles.

Essential Eligibility Requirements: Classroom

1. Read and comprehend written classroom materials such as handouts, tests, and/or PowerPoint slides.
2. Sit/remain attentive for an extended period of time, which may exceed one or more hours.
3. Learn and understand basic principles and techniques of firearms training.
4. Talk and/or hear. (Talking - expressing or exchanging ideas by means of spoken words). (Hearing - perceiving nature of sounds by ear).